

Sh. Ravi Kant Singh joined India Meteorological Department in 1998 after completing his Engineering Graduation in Electronics from KNIT, Sultanpur, UP in 1995. He maintained weather radar about 5 years prior to joining Seismology Division of IMD in 2002. He has about 20 years' experience of operational semiology which includes operation and maintenance of National Seismological Network (NSN), Seismic Microzonation of NCT Delhi, management of Data Centre and Database, Implementation of GIS tools and technologies in operational services. He contributed significantly to strengthen NSN from 62 observatories in 2002 to 150 as on date and completion of Delhi Microzonation of Delhi on 1:10000 scale in 2015. He also contributed significantly for design and development of feature rich website and "BhooKamp" App. Presently he is managing 24x7 Earthquake Monitoring Centre (EMC) of NCS alongwith serving as web manager.